

FIVE endeavors to seek and employ the best-qualified personnel, to provide equal opportunity based on merit to all colleagues in recruiting, training, promoting, and providing career advancement and to administer these and all other employment-related activities in a non-discriminatory manner.

FIVE is a signatory to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) on its ten principles for human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption. In accordance with Principle 6 of the UNGC, there should be no discrimination in any aspects associated with access to employment, to particular occupations, promotion, training, vocational guidance, employment conditions such as recruitment, remuneration, hours of work and rest, and job assignments.

FIVE has taken several measures to promote equal opportunity for all and provides its commitment to not tolerate any form of harassment and abusive behaviour. An illustrative list of measures taken to promote equal opportunities and not discriminate are as follows:

Implementation of Policies

FIVE has implemented policies and procedures for the promotion of equality across the organization.

- ▶ Non-Discrimination Policy – This policy expresses FIVE’s commitment to condemn and prohibit any non-discriminatory practices on grounds of race, age, sex, caste, creed, ethnic origin, language, colour, family status, religion or belief, nationality and national origin, gender (including gender identity, gender expression, HIV status, sexual orientation, trade union membership, place of origin or social origin, and pregnancy, , caring responsibilities, family circumstances marital status, disability, political ideology or Opinion, socio-economic background, national extraction, or genetic information, gender reassignment, or marriage and civil partnerships. Further, no discrimination shall be made on any employment practices such as recruiting, training, promoting, and providing career advancement and to administer these and all other employment-related activities in a non-discriminatory manner. It shall solely be based on individual merit. It describes an illustrative list of discrimination along with roles and responsibilities, commitment statements, measures for prevention of harassment and discrimination, grievance monitoring, training and awareness, targets, and reporting.
- ▶ Equal Employment Opportunity Policy – This policy document expresses certain guidelines to treat everyone fairly by creating equality in the workplace and promoting diversity of all forms in areas of employment. This policy further provides details on the Committee put in place which shall review any issues or conflicts that may arise with regards to discrimination, harassment, and equal employment opportunities.

These policies are applicable to all employees, contractors and to all entities of FIVE group.

Refer to the policies ‘FIVE Non-Discrimination Policy’ and ‘FIVE Equal Opportunity Policy’ for details.

FIVE ►

Assignment of Roles and Responsibilities

FIVE has defined a host of roles and responsibilities as a part of its policies to promote equality, diversity, inclusion and prohibit discrimination at the workplace.

1. GROUP DIRECTOR OF HR – The Group Director of HR is centrally responsible for ensuring the adherence of this policy document. Dissemination of the policy through to all employees and third-party contractors will be performed by the Group Director of HR. Further, they shall be responsible to support the respective support committees with required resources and support for the promotion of equality and diversity.
2. ETHICS AND COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE – All incidents reported through the reporting channels will be reported and documented by the Ethics and Compliance team. All incidents will be investigated as per procedures defined in the Grievance policy
3. DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE – Support the investigation for any disciplinary incidents reported.
4. HEAD OF DEPARTMENTS – Required to ensure compliance to the policy in all facets of employment by application of non-discrimination and non-harassment guidelines. They are also responsible to promote equality without any biases and hiring, promotion practices solely based on individual merit.
5. EEO Committee – shall be responsible to implement appropriate measures in case any complaint is reported. Further actions to be taken to promote equality and diversity shall be decided and implemented through the Committee.

Strategic targets and Action plans

FIVE understands that promotion of equality, diversity, and inclusion in business is a continuous process. To enhance its efforts in this direction, FIVE has created a strategic target and action plan to further promote and exercise these practices across the group. This has also been incorporated in FIVE's Sustainability objectives (as a part of the Green Financing Framework)

Strategic Objective	Metric	Target
Ensuring equality, diversity, and inclusion	Integration of policies and processes to enhance equality, diversity, and inclusion	To develop a specific training program that facilitates EDI on a quarterly basis (for increasing gender diversity in the organization) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Perform 4 trainings with all head of departments to provide equal opportunity to genders and incorporate inclusion in their hiring practices - Monitor progress against these targets half-yearly through meetings with the Discrimination and EEO Committee to solicit feedback from stakeholders for identifying areas of improvement to ensure that the organization remains committed to its diversity and inclusion goals - Implementation of our 'Flexi working hours' policy where practical/ possible which will support our objective of aiding our employees to balance work and family responsibilities

FIVE ►

Strategic Objective	Metric	Target
	Employee Gender Ratio	Improve the existing gender diversity ratio to 25% by 2027 and 30% by 2030 (Our current gender ratio at 20% is higher than the national UAE average of 17.72% and 19.4% for Dubai) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Open positions for all genders - Employee training for avoidance of any form of bias in hiring - Perform gender diversity pay audit for the organization to identify anomalies and providing equal pay across genders

These targets are reviewed periodically by the Group Director of HR in co-ordination with the EEO Committee to ensure the implementation of action plans in line with the defined targets.

Training and Awareness initiatives

► Townhall training sessions

As a part of FIVE’s townhall sessions conducted across properties, we provided detailed training sessions on promotion of equality in the workplace, prohibiting non-discrimination and harassment, training on type of harassment and modes and methods of reporting any incidents through grievance channels.

DIVERSITY, EQUALITY AND INCLUSION

As a FIVE employee, YOU SHOULD

- Treat colleagues with dignity, respect diversity of different cultures and nationalities
- Enrich our culture through the diverse skills, experiences, and backgrounds
- Make all talent decisions ethically and honestly and provide equal employment

- Do not discriminate anyone based on any attributes including race, color, sex, religion, political opinion, national extraction, social origin, age, disability, HIV/AIDS status, trade union membership, and sexual orientation or any other characteristic protected by applicable laws.

Audits and Evaluations

FIVE acknowledges that human rights due diligence is an ongoing activity, and the guidelines need to be always adhered to. FIVE will monitor its own operations continuously to identify and assess any actual or potential adverse impacts and where necessary, respond effectively to resolve identified issues. FIVE has developed a detailed human rights due diligence process which covers the human rights risk and impact assessment. FIVE performs a periodic human rights risk and impact assessment which includes planning and scoping, data collection and baseline development, risk assessment, impact mitigation, and reporting and evaluation.

This is done through detailed internal review processes, external stakeholder assessments such as surveys to assess risk and impact of human rights and develop and implement any necessary mitigation plans through audits.

An extract of the Human Rights Due Diligence review for the current year is below –
